As parents, you have valuable insights and observations to share that will help us to get to know your son or daughter as we begin to work with them. Your anecdotes may also help us to write entertaining and informed letters of recommendation. (Please note: We have access to all teacher, advisor, and coach comments; there is no need to include them with your questionnaire.) Thank you for taking the time to complete this form.

1. We are proud of our child because (Specific anecdotes are welcome):

2. Please list three adjectives that describe your son or daughter and provide an example for each one.
