

THE APRIL TERUEL PRIZE, given in memory of a former student, is awarded to a senior who is kind and understanding to their peers and has been an active participant in the life of the School.

Meaningfully engaged with his classes, athletic teams, and extracurricular activities, this student is a valuable community participant and an unassuming leader—genuine, readily approachable, morally grounded. Whether working on service projects, expanding his horizons through Round Square and Spanish trips, or being warm, friendly, and helpful to his advisory “siblings,” he demonstrates sincere kindness, understanding, and care for others.

MATTHEW ALEXANDER WALSH '26

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN PRIZE was established by George Deptula, a former member of the faculty, to recognize strength of character, sensitivity to the needs of others, and willingness to use their education, talent, and time to assist those in need.

An exceptional student and extraordinary musician, this student shares their time and talents generously to support others within and beyond BB&N. By playing in the musical, orchestra and chamber ensembles, as well as spearheading the initiative to bring the Music for Food program to BB&N in 2024, their impact will endure well beyond their years at the Upper School.

VARTAN ARAKELIAN '26

Cherishing relationships above all, this student leader has been a welcoming presence to everyone he's encountered, whether at Bivouac, crew, debate, or a game of Spikeball. His altruistic spirit knows no bounds in or out of BB&N, and he leaves behind a legacy of meaningful connection and unwavering generosity.

LUKAS WELLESLEY '26

THE HEAD'S PRIZE is awarded to those students in the graduating class who, in addition to fine scholarship, have contributed generously to friends, the school community, and whose lives exemplify the School's motto: Honor, Scholarship, Kindness.

With a rare fusion of literary sensibility and scientific ambition, this scholar pursues knowledge with integrity, generosity, and boundless range. Whether enriching the community through BSU, SHADES, and EMPOWER, pushing the frontiers of her STEM passions at prestigious summer programs, or bringing a humanist's precision to the sciences and a scientist's rigor to the page, she embodies the school's highest ideals — and does so with warmth, grace, and a hunger for understanding as vast as the universe she hopes one day to explore.

MO MARIE LAUYANNE KOUAME '26

With grace, humility, curiosity, and joy, this leader has made an incredible impact at BB&N. Whether in the spotlight of the Theater, throughout the music rooms, on the Bivouac fields, or competing on the world debate stage, he cultivates Belonging and embodies Inquiry in his every move.

Community

THE BARRETT HOYT AWARD was established in 1972 in memory of a student and is awarded to a senior who acts responsibly and represents their classmates and School with honor.

An indispensable community force, this student leads through steady presence, integrity, and quiet determination. Whether spearheading Community Day or guiding SHADES, she unites others with genuine empathy and grace. A persistent and talented scholar, she consistently uplifts those around her with a resilient kindness and sincerity that requires no recognition to be felt deeply.

ISABEL JENEL DORICENT '26

A selfless leader who has worked tirelessly on behalf of his class and the whole student body, this student always leads with kindness and integrity, always seeking to understand the needs of others. From organizing class dances, to completing a project to aid the visually impaired, to rallying the Knights tennis team to compete with grit and sportsmanship, his optimism and community spirit shine through all he does.

JONATHAN MICHAEL ANDREOLI '26

THE ANNETTE JOHNSON PRIZE honors the memory of a student whose life exemplified courage and commitment to scholarship. The prize recognizes optimism, perseverance, and dedication to the community and its ideals.

This student embodies the BB&N motto through his kindness, intelligence, and dedication to his community and family. Whether he is helping peers grasp concepts in the classroom, commanding the stage, or competing on the track or soccer field, he approaches every endeavor with a smile and cheerful demeanor. His character and genuine care for others leave a lasting, positive impact on everyone around him.

DORAND LORENZO BLACKSTON '26

A positive force in the senior class, this student is a leader both in and out of the classroom. In his studies, he is a calm, mature presence who brings focused effort and thoughtful insight to every discussion. Outside of class, he has worked tirelessly to better BB&N; organizing HacKnights, editing The Vanguard and CHASM, leading Peer Tutors, founding the Designing for Impact club, and serving on the Student Council for years, most notably as this year's Senior Class President.

CARL THOMAS CHEN '26

THE MERIWETHER OTIS KIMBALL PRIZE, was established in memory of a long-ago Browne & Nichols student to honor a senior who has used their talents to enrich the intellectual and extracurricular life of the school.

A consummate bridge builder, this leader is adept at creating energetic, authentic, and inclusive spaces where students and adults alike feel welcome and seen. Whether leading a class discussion or a Latino Hispanic Student Association meeting, she has a knack for shepherding others along and lifting up those around her with tenacity, curiosity, maturity, and a sense of humor.

ABIGAIL MELISSA BROWN '26

This student is the kind of young person whose presence elevates every classroom, conversation, and community experience. Whether contributing thoughtful insights in discussions, engaging meaningfully with peers and teachers, or embracing every aspect of school life with authenticity and enthusiasm, he enriches the intellectual and communal spirit of our school. He leads not through recognition or attention, but through sincerity, curiosity, consistency, and respect for others.

YANCHENG ZHAO '26

THE LUBETS PRIZE was established by Richard I. Lubets, Browne & Nichols Class of 1951, in memory of his parents, to honor a student who has made an outstanding contribution during their senior year.

A visionary who leads by doing, this recipient has left an indelible mark on our community. Whether piloting The Vanguard, captaining the cross country and track teams, or organizing Class of 2026 activities, he approaches every task with joy and enthusiasm. He does not just participate; he empowers every team, class, and ensemble to reach its highest potential.

GABE GETNICK COOPER '26

Dynamic, confident, and vibrant, this student leads with her whole heart. Whether she is starring in the musical, running the senior class stealth tag, or leading a class discussion, she is a thoughtful and mature leader who has put in the hard work to make senior year a better experience for her classmates.

SYDNEY MARLEY FRANCIS '26

THE DAVID R. POKROSS PRIZE was established by the Pokross children and grandchildren to honor their father and grandfather, a former trustee at Buckingham Browne & Nichols. It is awarded to the student whose commitment to people in need best embodies the ideals expressed in the Service Learning Program of the Upper School.

A true beacon of empathy, this student has consistently turned words into action locally and globally. Through her leadership in CELB, Peer Counseling, and her magazine work amplifying diverse women's careers, she exemplifies what it means to use one's voice for the greater good.

OLIVIA MARIE-BEATRICE RICHTER '26

This student is known for his dry wit, common-sense approach to life, and willingness to roll up his sleeves to assist those in need both in and outside the BB&N community. As captain of the lacrosse team, a dedicated member of CELB, and a dependable service volunteer at a local church, he leads by example, graciously lending his time and support to others.
